WHIG FESTIVAL AT CORNWALL.

Mr. Editor :- Allow me to furnish you with an account of the Whig festival at this place, on the 5th inst. A party of the Whig brothenhood gathered together to celebrate the tri-numph of their principles in the recent election. A supper was furnished in admirable style, by our Whig host, CHARLES MERSILL. After gencies of the government, a security to our the Vermont Hotel, or at L. W. Clark's bookprivate rights and property, may it be perma-nent in all time to come. The Union: May the inseparable ties beween the North and South continue to insure each, equal rights and equal dignities. Gen. Taylor: The man faithful to his trust at Fort Harrison, in the swamps of Florida and on the bank of the Rio Grande—such filelity it is his darling passion to approve.

Song,

"Breadly and brightly in the clear smulight Is our good Whig homer streaming."

Millard Fillmore, Vice President elect: Item in comparative poverty, trained among an industrious kindred to hardy toil, called early into honorable public service, he is at eagth honored by one of the highest gifts of a Henry Clay: . The idel of his country-with sputiess reputation as a statesmar, and the moduselfish love of a pairiot to commend him to per. e gratitude of the American people. This toast was responded to by three hear-
